

PROFILE TIPS

the Art of house sitting

Profile Tips

1. Start with a catchy headline: Use a brief, engaging phrase that highlights your best qualities as a house sitter.
2. Introduce yourself warmly: Begin with a friendly, concise introduction about who you are and why you enjoy house sitting.
3. Highlight relevant experience: Mention any previous house sitting, pet care, or home maintenance experience.
4. Emphasize your reliability: Stress your trustworthiness, punctuality, and ability to follow instructions.
6. Showcase your love for animals: If the homeowner has pets, express your fondness for animals and any pet care experience.
7. List relevant skills: Mention skills like gardening, basic home repairs, or first aid that could be valuable.
8. Describe your cleanliness habits: Assure homeowners that you'll keep their home tidy and respect their property.

Profile Tips

8. Mention your flexibility: Indicate your willingness to adapt to homeowners' specific needs and routines.
9. Include personal interests: Share hobbies or interests that make you relatable and show you're well-rounded.
10. Offer references: Mention that you can provide references, even if they're personal rather than house sitting-specific.
11. Use a professional photo: Include a clear, friendly photo of yourself to help build trust.
12. Keep it concise: Aim for a profile that's informative but not overly long – about 250-300 words is often ideal.
13. Proofread carefully: Ensure your profile is free of spelling and grammatical errors to appear professional.
